Lake Sharpe, South Dakota

Great Walleye bite right now on Lake Sharpe in Pierre, South Dakota. Live bait rigs and trolling plugs are really putting some nice 15 to 20 inch walleyes in the boat.   Fish the top 15 miles of Lake Sharpe in 8 to 12 foot of water working the sandbars and channel edges. Classic river structure, sandbars, current breaks, deep holes and channel edges.   Check www.dakotawalleye.com for up to date fishing reports on the great Walleye fishing going on right now on Lake Sharpe in Pierre, South Dakota.

About the Author

Pro fishing guide / owner of Dakota Walleye Guide Service in Pierre South Daktoa. Featured in June 2007 issue of Field and Stream as one of the nations top fishing destinations.

Source: http://www.thefishinguide.com